

Introducing TalentMobility- Fostering Homegrown Talent

Our TalentMobility platform allows your company to nurture your existing employee talent pool to promote growth and retention. Through our latest solution, workers can build their dream career paths within your organization while helping you avoid unnecessary talent acquisition costs by searching externally.

TalentMobility Explained

Companies throughout all industries are struggling to find and retain skilled workers. Searching for new talent to fill open roles isn't always the best strategy, especially when your business is already employing experienced workers who are engaged with your brand.

TalentMobility empowers current employees to easily register through our platform to nurture your employee talent pool. Talent can then build a personalized profile, be matched to internal open roles and express interest in these positions. TalentMobility allows candidates to search from full-time to contract roles in order to find the right fit based on their skill sets and career aspirations.

How TalentMobility Can Help You Build a More Agile and Engaged Workforce

- Our solution's matching capability for all open roles makes it easy to support your employees' future career development while letting companies benefit from a more engaged workforce with the flexibility to create their own career paths.
- By investing in your employees' career growth and providing new professional challenges and opportunities, your company can improve retention rates.
- Allow your internal Talent Acquisition team to source vacant roles easily via our intuitive UI and job matching algorithm with internal talent, resulting in reduced time to hire.
- Create opportunities for vertical and lateral growth, allowing talent to grow their skills by exposing them to new areas of the business, resulting in a more innovative and robust team.
- Hiring and onboarding new workers is expensive, and through TalentMobility your organization will be able to avoid these costs by filling new positions with existing employees. Leveraging internal talent will reduce recruiting and training costs while increasing overall productivity.
